1. INTRODUCTION

Well Come to North Eastern Centre for Education (NECE). The NECE is an Autonomous Govt. Registered Institution registered under SR Act XXI of 1860. The NECE is an organized NGO devoted to the promotion of education in the North Eastern Region. Its aim is to serve the society in general and the underprivileged class in particular in the field of education. It is a non-profit making Non-Government Organization.

The urban population of the North Eastern region is becoming more and more aware of the new opportunities being thrown by information Technology. North Eastern Centre for Education has come up to fill-up the gap. We do rather strongly feel that the courses we are seeking to offer will be of great help to the young generation of this Area. The courses if made available in DHUBRI, which is the Frontier District of Assam, will be able to draw attention of young prospective students of this region.

The North Eastern Centre for Education (NECE) was established mainly for extending the facilities of Higher Education to a very large number of people. The main concern of this NGO is to provide an opportunity for higher education to one and all, and thereby democratize higher education in North East India in association with "Indira Gandhi National Open University" and other Members of the "Association of Indian University" (AIU). Since its birth NECE has been working relentlessly through its networks of devoted youths and educationists to achieve its goal. And in this respect we are happy to inform you that this INSTITUTE has accorded a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to open and run a Special Study Centre of Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) at Dhubri district and also accorded another Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Gauhati University and Dibrugarh University for running courses under Post Graduate Correspondence School and Directorate of Distance Education respectively (i.e. M.A. in Assamese, English, Pol.
